

Analyst

Role: Permanent / Full Time
Location: Central London
Salary: Competitive

My mission as an Analyst is be the solid foundation that enables our team to deliver trusted recommendations based on research and insight.

As an Analyst I will:

Uncover insights that form the foundation of trustworthy client recommendations

- Uncovering great sources of information to provide research and analysis that reveal insights, not just facts
- Engaging professionally with stakeholders to gather inputs and provide updates
- Collating findings in an articulate, impactful way that wows our clients
- Owning the research and data that support the recommendations we make
- Being proactive in bringing my knowledge to ensure my recommendations are supported by robust facts and insights

Be a valued and trusted member of my project team

- Breaking down briefs into discrete tasks that I am able to deliver in a timely manner that meets the expectations of my project team
- Ensuring projects run smoothly, taking care of any tasks to help teams operate more effectively
- Playing a proactive role in developing the client relationship; from supporting my team in producing wow outputs to being excellent hosts for our clients

Understand and apply the Manifesto approach to solving our clients' problems

- Developing a breadth of skills that support every aspect of our approach to solving client problems
- Understanding the overarching context of the project and how my role contributes to excellent client delivery

Contribute to the growth of our company

- Proactively identify opportunities for internal growth
- Taking ownership and delivering internal projects that have a lasting effect on our business
- Making us the best we can be by taking responsibility for my own personal development

As an Analyst, I will demonstrate:

- + Proactivity and enthusiasm in everything I do
- + Willingness to go the extra mile, to help others and have each others' backs
- + Curiosity and eagerness to learn and be coached
- + Acute attention to detail, taking ownership and responsibility for my work
- + A burning desire to make every output as strong as it can be and always striving to improve
- + An analytical and creative mindset that delivers "Wow" for our clients and our company

Additional Requirements:

- + Educated to degree level at a top university
- + Minimum 1 year work experience (ideally in strategy, consulting, and/or marketing roles, however other types of experience will be considered)

To apply, please send your CV and a brief covering letter to work@manifestogrowth.com